FOREWORD

Here is your book! We, the Annual Staff, have had it for almost a year and now it is yours.

This record of the events of 1961-1962 is a memorial that we will treasure all of our lives.

The Annual Staff would like to express their sincere appreciation for the co-operation given us by each member and each student.

We hope that you will enjoy the 1961-1962 COMET as much as we have enjoyed publishing it.

Seems as if we caught everyone working this time.

Janice Golson displays her project with the zeal of a winner.

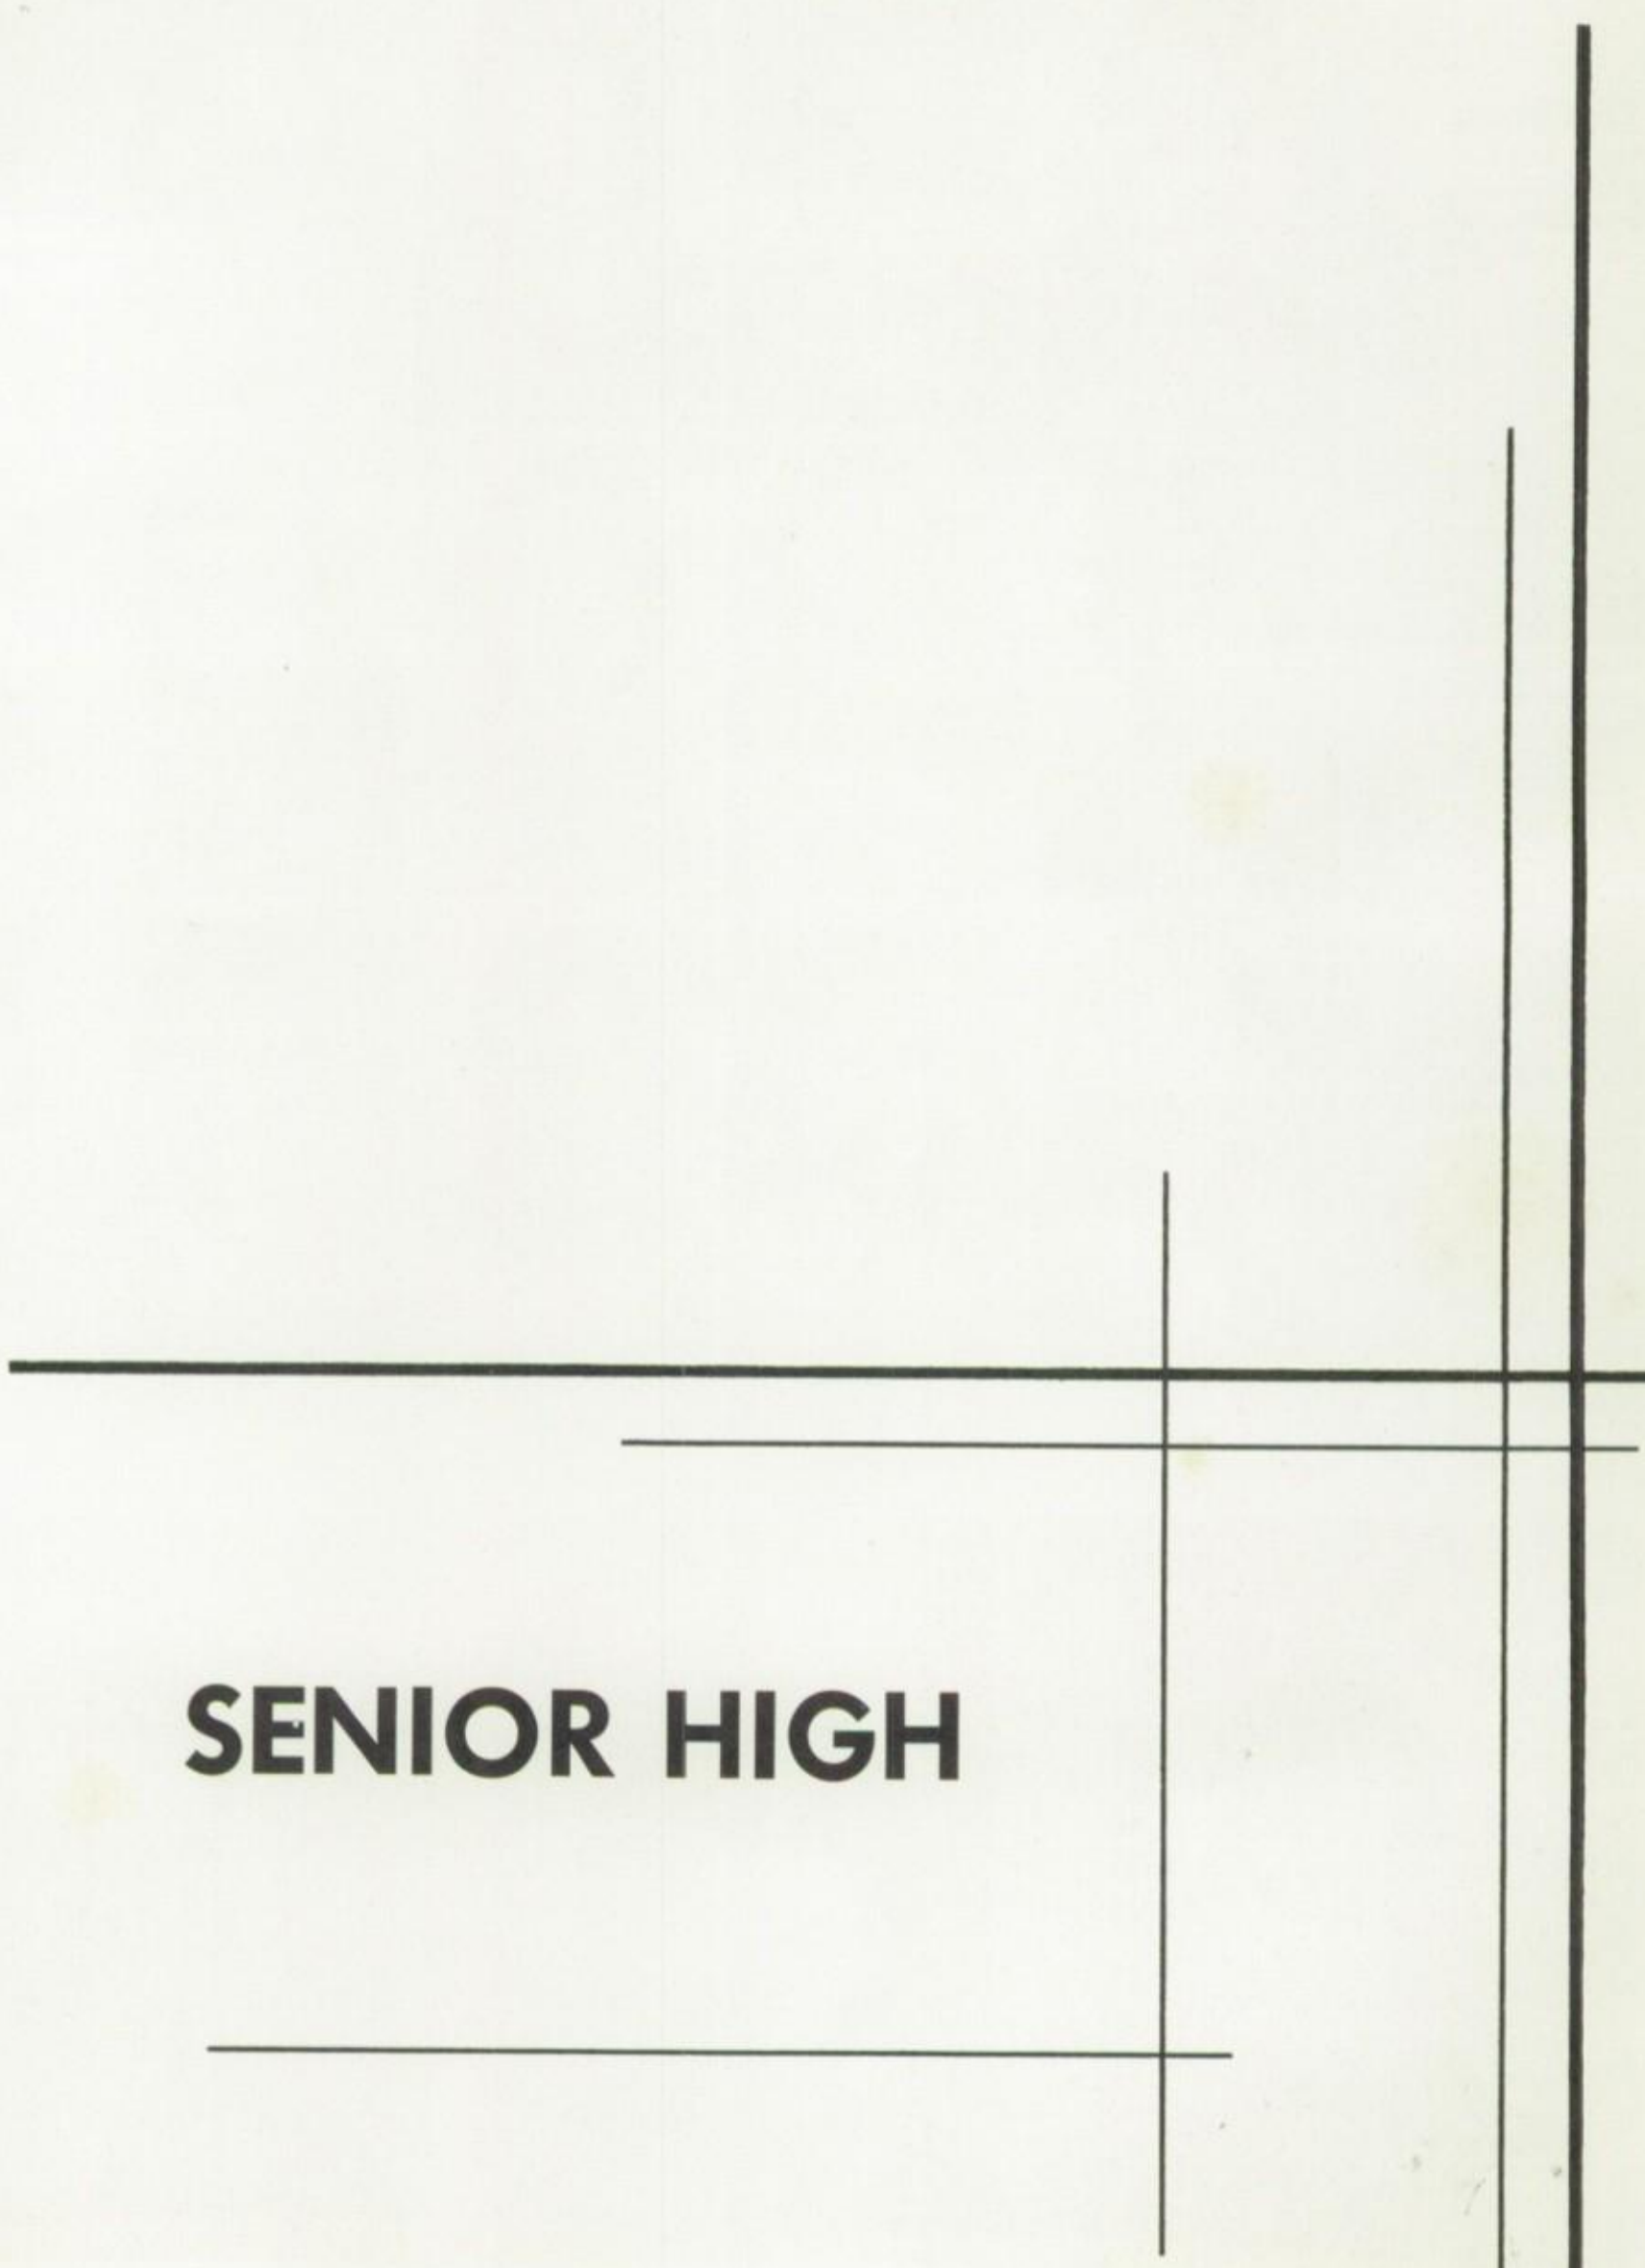

Hey, Danny, what's your problem? Spring fever.

What seems to be the fault of those beautiful gray gates, Eddy?

Did we catch two girls talking, maybe?

These are boosters at the Regional Basketball Tournament.

WHO are they smiling at?

Election day was coming up.

Who's the rat that ratted this rat?

Is the sun in your eyes, Carolyn?

Is this the minuet?

Relaxing on the campus.

Smiles will go away when school takes up.

Donna Devers and Ronnie Carey won the PTA Student of the Year award.

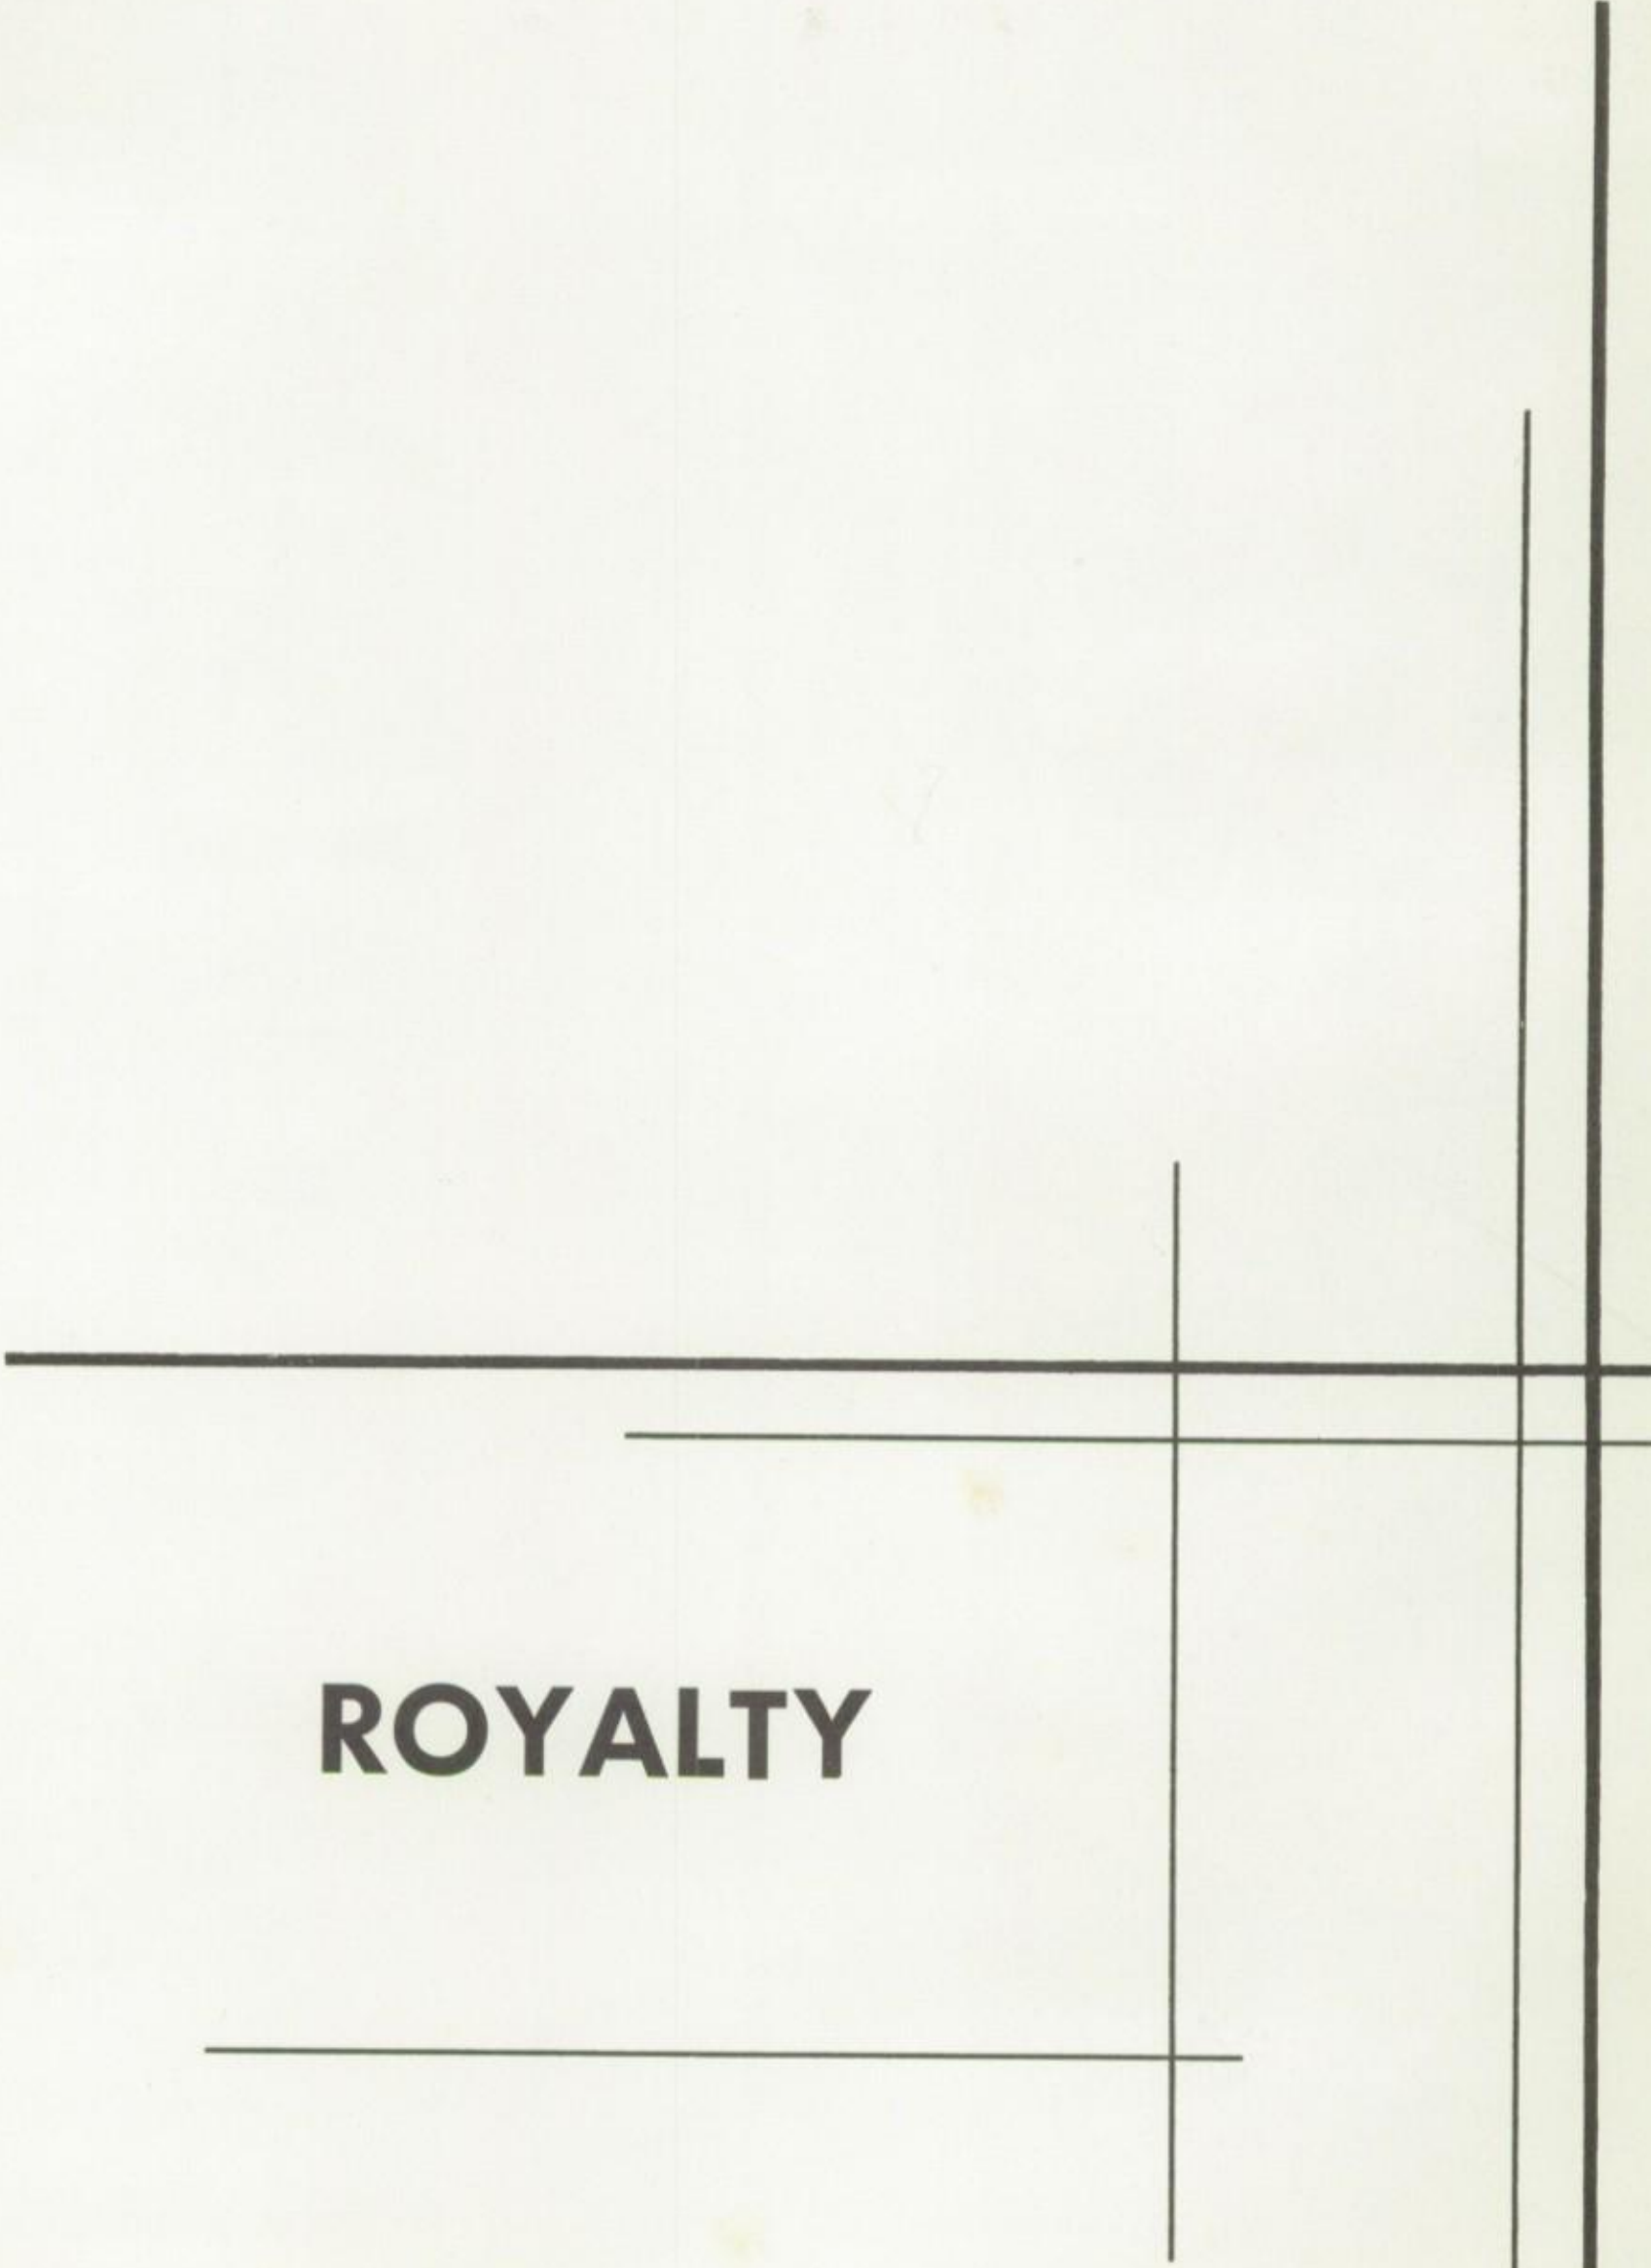

Do you suppose it's math?

The girls are sending the boys off to state tournament.

Isn't this a lovely couple.

An abstract geometric design consisting of several black lines of varying thicknesses. A thick vertical line runs down the right side of the page. A thick horizontal line crosses the page about two-thirds of the way down. Several thinner lines intersect these and each other, creating a grid-like structure. One thin vertical line intersects the thick horizontal line and the thick vertical line. Another thin horizontal line intersects the thick vertical line and the thick horizontal line. A third thin vertical line intersects the thick horizontal line and the thick vertical line. A fourth thin horizontal line intersects the thick vertical line and the thick horizontal line. The word "SPORTS" is printed in a bold, sans-serif font, centered horizontally and positioned between the thick horizontal line and the thick vertical line.

SENIORS

ARDEANA KAY VOWELL

Valedictorian

Life is but a span,
and she'll enjoy every inch of it.

RONALD WAYNE CAREY

Salutatorian

Some think he is bashful but others doubt it.

CLASS OFFICERS

DOYLE RAY MULLINS

President

"I'm the only one of my kind."

RICHARD TOWNSEND GILBY

Vice President

"Beware . . . I may be famous yet."

ANNELLEN COOPER

Secretary

"Work is work and must be done;
nevertheless, I'll have my fun."

BARBARA THACKER GILBY

Treasurer

Her future is planned;
third finger left hand.

ANIE ALINE ADAMS

It's nice to be natural when you're naturally nice.

PHILLIP ALDRIDGE

Man is not made to question, but to adore.

MARY CATHERINE BEGGS

Like a glass of champagne, always bubbling over.

LINDA SUE BOONE

Talk she can and talk she will;
her tongue seldom ever still.

ISHMAEL NOAH BROOKS

A right good fellow here you can see,
and one as friendly as can be.

GLYNDAL DARREN COWAN

It's not what you do;
it's what you get away with.

MICHAEL REX CROOK

Don't say all you know,
but know all you say.

LINDA AUGUSTINE DARITY

"My interest is in the future;
I'm going to spend the rest of my life there."

DONNA ROY DEVERS

It is a friendly heart that has plenty of friends.

RICHARD RAY DRUMMOND

He puts his worries in a pocket with a hole in it.

FRANKIE LOU ELLIS

Witty, lively, and full of fun;
talk she will to everyone.

ROBERT ELDON EMMONS

If poison fails, try psychology.

FONDELLA MAE GRAY

A sweet and friendly smile lights her face.

JUDY RUTH HOLDER

A good natured person is never out of place.

BARBARA SUE JONES

"I believe in no man's opinion;
I have some of my own."

JOELLA DARLENE JONES

Do your best; leave the rest.

TOMMY ROY KINARD

He who invented work should have finished it.

BILLIE JO KIRKPATRICK

'Tis better to love one man lots than lots of men little.

WALTER RAY LANE

"Sometimes I sit and think, but most times I just sit."

SHERRY ANN McCURRY

Not too serious, not too gay,
but a true blue girl in every way.

LARRY GLEN MARTIN

Live and learn; die and forget it all.

CHARLES FREDRICK MAXWELL JR.

Toward the goal he always goes,
trying hard to defeat the foes.

LINDA O'BRYANT

True merit often lies in being quiet.

KENNETH WAYNE OVERSTREET

A little nonsense now and then is relished by the best of men.

CECIL JOE OXFORD

Loyal, witty, and full of fun;
he's a friend of everyone.

LOIS ANN PARSON

Generally speaking, she's generally speaking.

SARAH LOIS SALLY RHODES

"I'd rather have a man without money than money without a man."

MARY LENA SANNER
She thinks little but says a lot.

LINDA SUE SAVAGE
"I'm not going to kill myself studying if I never die."

JEFF EDWARD SMITH
Always jolly and quite carefree;
life may be dull but never is he.
LONNIE ARVIN SORRELL
Thinking is an idle waste of time.

LARRY LEE SOSEBEE

Don't let studying ruin your education.

GEORGE WILBERT STORM

Good cheer is no hindrance to a good life.

DAVID KEITH THOMPSON

If it's a man's work, I'm only a boy.

SHARON RAE VANN

Why work when you can get someone to do it for you?

JANICE KAY WHISENHUNT

She seems so gentle and so shy, but there's mischief in her eye.

ROSIE WANDA LEE WIGGINS

Her quietness speaks for itself.

ALICE FAYE WILSON

She's pretty to walk with;
witty to talk with.

AUBREY DALE WRIGHT

"I'm not lazy, I'm just saving my energy."

SENIOR SNAPS

Seniors???
Larry Martin and Joella Jones.

Mary, Anne and Joella pose for the camera.

No shorts allowed, girls.

Movie Starlets??

"But my ring is different," says Aline.

Mr. Harden converses with his assistant, Linda Darity.

Seniors get in the swing of things.

Casual attire??

Plink, Plink, Plunk.

Ain't this the life.

STUDY IN BLACK

The Senior Class presented for its assembly both an entertaining and educational program. It was a study of what the Negro has contributed to the entertainment field. The class as a whole sang Negro spirituals.

Anne Cooper narrated the program.

Poetry was done by Lois Parson.

Sherry sang "Can't Help Lovin' Dat Man of Mine."

"Summertime" was sung by Don-

JR.-SR. BANQUET

You tell them, Aline! What's wrong, Dick?

A couple of dates are seen at this table. They seemed to be quite small in number at this banquet.

This table seems to be gay enough!

The food must be the center of attention here.

These people aren't camera shy.

King Neptune (Phil Hosler) and a pretty mermaid (Judy Bryant) added the perfect touch.

Ray Charles, no doubt.

A handsome threesome.

What kind of expression is THIS, anyway?

SENIOR AWARDS ASSEMBLY

The entire Senior Class sings their farewell song together.

Senior Oklahoma Honor Society members.

Senior members of National Honor Society.

Recognition of Valedictorian and Salutatorian.

The class looks on as its members receive awards.

Lonnie Sorrell receives the P.E. Award.

Donna Devers receives the Daughter of American Revolution award.

Alice Wilson receives the Typing and Short-hand awards.

George Storm receives the American Legion award.

SENIOR DAY

... And this is the group that took a trip.

This is our group at the pool at Lake Murray.

C'mon! Push him off. Push him off!

Some say that Walter was awake that day. Others doubt it.

Our nomination for Bathing Beauty.

Doyle Mullins is NOT bashful. The towel must be for the heat.

Those who had enough energy went paddleboat riding.

Looks like these girls are still happy.

Here the group started Part II of their journey.

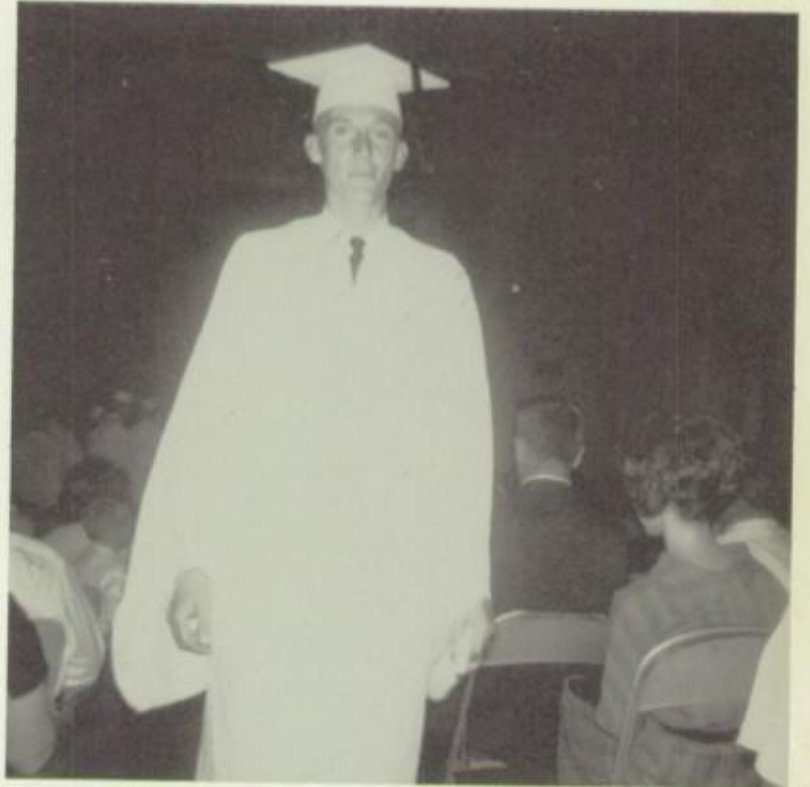

Two of the well-wearied mothers that went along.

GRADUATION

Anne faces graduation with a smile.

To the Seniors the Recessional seemed to be the longest part.

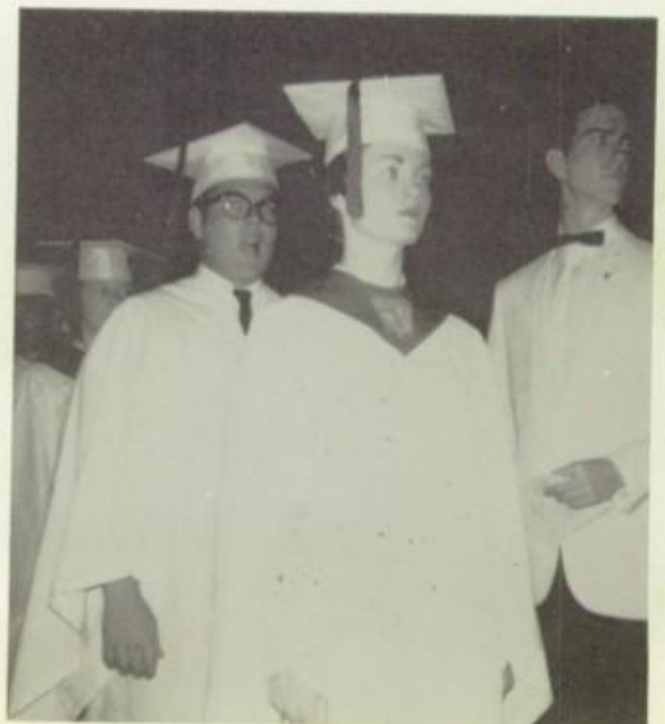

"I decline to accept the end of man."

Waiting to march in are Linda Darity and Glyndal Cowan.

Lois and Larry also wait to enter.

Most Seniors struck a serious note at some time or another.
